

Appendix 5 – Requirements for Financial Attestation

The entity fulfilling the financial and credit requirements (as specified in Article IV of the RFP Rules) must provide its most recent quarterly financial data, including a balance sheet, income statement, cash flow statement, and any accompanying notes and schedules.

If available, the SEC Form 10-Q should be submitted to fulfill this requirement. If unavailable, the most recent quarterly or monthly financial data must be accompanied by an attestation by an officer of the entity that fulfills the following requirements:

1. the attestation is a notarized affidavit attached to the financial information provided by the entity;
2. the attestation identifies the person making the affidavit as an officer of the entity;
3. the officer attests that "the information contained in the financial statements fairly presents in all material respects the financial condition and results of the operations of _____ [name of entity]".

The Financial Attestation must be completed either by: (i) printing, signing, notarizing and scanning the Financial Attestation; or by: (ii) digitally signing the Financial Attestation and providing along with the Financial Attestation a document or information verifying the identity of the signatory. If digitally signed, the Financial Attestation is not required to be notarized.
